We invite you to join the Alzheimer Society of Toronto on Wednesday, November 6, 2024 for the IG Private Wealth Management Unforgettable Evening. All funds raised will benefit those living with dementia and their care partners.

Your support is invaluable. When you sponsor the Unforgettable Evening Gala you play a crucial role in alleviating the personal and social consequences of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias. Alzheimer's disease is not an illness we can ignore. It has an overwhelming impact on the people diagnosed with the disease as well as the families and friends who care for them. You have the power to help. Please join us for a truly wonderful and unforgettable evening in support of the Alzheimer Society of Toronto.

IG Private Wealth Management Unforgettable Evening will be hosted by Gavin Crawford, producer & host of CBC radio's hit comedy quiz Because News and the hit podcast, Let's Not Be Kidding.

WHO WE ARE

At the Alzheimer Society of Toronto (AST), we strive to make sure no one has to feel alone in their journey living with dementia. Since 1981, we have been delivering free programs, education, healthcare navigation, and counselling for individuals living with dementia and their families and care partners.

More than 51,000 people in Toronto are currently living with dementia. On a broader scale, one-in-three adults in Ontario has a close family member living with dementia. For those affected by dementia and their care partners, the Alzheimer Society of Toronto is there to ensure the best quality of life possible, a life of dignity and respect.

*“We are so grateful to the Alzheimer Society of Toronto and the Early Diagnosis group for their support.
It is so meaningful and important for us.”*

– Support Group Attendee

The Alzheimer Society of Toronto helps more than 8,000 families each year, offering free counselling, caring support, and education. We work to reduce stigma in your community, providing education and training on Dementia Friendly Communities to Toronto Libraries, Toronto transit services and other organizations. And we work to provide safe spaces and engagement opportunities for those living with dementia and their care partners, supporting social inclusion and quality of life.

With the number of new dementia diagnosis expecting to grow by 22% over the next five years, the demand for our services risks outpacing our ability to meet the needs of everyone who requests support. You can make a difference.
